EX LIBRIS

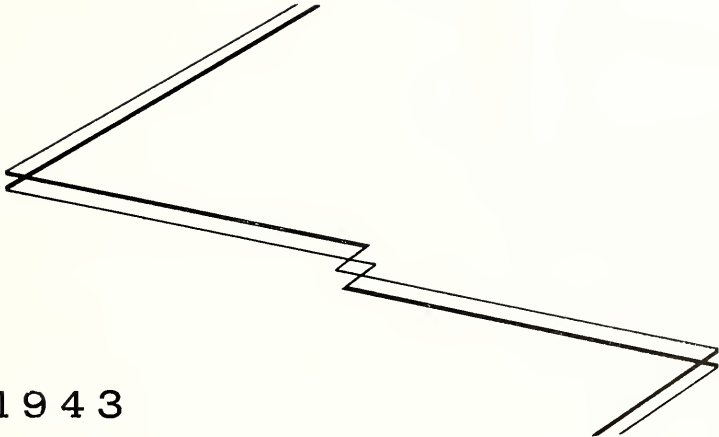

DEDICATION

We, the class of 1943, dedicate this annual to Mr. C. C. Logan. We are pleased that we have the opportunity to dedicate this book to him.

During his twenty-three years at University High, Mr. Logan has taught many science classes and has been responsible for introducing many new classes, the newest of which is Science of Aeronautics.

Besides his busy duties as a teacher, he has built up a film library which contains more than two hundred reels. This library has served all of Southern Illinois and as many as fourteen groups have been shown pictures within one day.

FOOTBALL

In the third year of six-man football at University High School the Lynxes, coached by L. J. Keefe, won three games, lost three games, and tied one.

Bill Parrish, a senior and a star backfield man for the Lynxes, was placed on the all-state six-man team. This was the second U. High boy in three years to receive this honor. Elbert Easterly, a senior, was selected as center on the all-state third team and Charles Friedline, also a senior, received honorable mention for his work at end.

There were six seniors on the U. High 1942 football squad. These seniors were Bill Parrish, Elbert Easterly, Charles Friedline, Martin Vaughn, Melvin Thompson, and Jim Thomas.

Other boys to play for U. High during the season were Jim Trammel, Wilburn Griffith, and Russel Hartley, juniors; Bob Cozadd, Lawrence Hill, and G. W. Hogue, sophomores; and Jim Friedline and Don Chamness, freshmen.

U. High won three conference games, lost two, and tied one. They beat Sesser twice, and Valier once. They lost to Royalton and Valier, and tied Royalton in one contest. The Lynxes lost a non-conference game to Mounds.

Seated—Trammel, Parrish, Robertson, Stewart, Houghland.

Standing—Taylor, Winfield, Thomas, J. Friedline, J. Chamness, Masters, Hogue, Mayer, Keefe (coach).

BASKETBALL

The U. High team finished the 1942-43 season with eleven wins and five losses. The season ended with a loss to Murphysboro in the first round of the regional tournament. In the sixteen games played within the year, the Lynxes scored 617 points to 482 for their opponents. This is an average score of 39-30 for each game.

Five seniors were on the basketball squad. These were Parrish, Robertson, Stewart, Thompson, and Thomas. The rest of the squad included two juniors, Trammel and Houghland; three sophomores, Chamness, Mayer, and Hogue; and three freshmen, Masters, Friedline, and Taylor. The second team won seven games while losing only three.

The starting five for the majority of the season was Parrish and Trammel at forwards, Robertson at center, and Thompson and Stewart at guards. Robertson and Parrish were the leading scorers, each averaging about twelve points per game.

The Lynxes opened the season with a 51-19 loss to Benton. They won from Royalton and Cobden before losing their second game of the season to Carterville. They won from Sesser, Hurst, and Cobden, before losing again, this time to Attucks in the Valier invitational tournament. The third game after the invitational tournament was lost to Murphy and they won four straight before losing to Murphysboro in the regional tournament.

The Staff

We, the Mummy Case Staff, present to the students and teachers of University High School, the 1942-43 edition of the Mummy Case. This yearbook represents the effort of the staff which is chosen from the student body of this school year.

It is strongly felt that the following pages will reflect the love and respect which we bear toward our school and one another. The staff is very anxious that this Mummy Case be a worthy representation of the ideals and principles of one of the best schools. The yearbook also symbolizes the friendship and loyalty that has helped to mold our high school as a model school of this state.

The staff sincerely hopes that in future years you may recall your good old school days spent in University High by browsing through this yearbook. May these pages help you to recall the memories of the days spent at this school.

Victory Corps

University High Victory Corps, governed by the student council, was the first of its kind in this section of the state. The organization is composed of students participating in some form of civilian defense activities: U. S. O. volunteer activities, Red Cross services, farm aid or other part-time employment to meet manpower shortages, salvage campaigns, care of small children or working mothers, gardening, book-collection, air warden, and firewatcher. They must spend at least one hour each week doing this work, and must be passing in all subjects. The purpose of the Victory Corps is to prepare its members for future service in the armed forces, in war production, or in essential civilian occupations.

Each student should be participating in a school physical fitness program appropriate to his abilities and needs in the light of his probable contribution to the Nation's war effort. He should be studying or have studied school courses appropriate to his age, grade, ability, and probable immediate usefulness to the Nation's war effort, within the limits of the facilities of the school.

Several members have already been awarded the "V" which signifies that they have been participating in the required civilian defense activities.

Queen

Avis Frank, lovely blond-headed senior, was crowned homecoming queen of 1942-1943.

Many activities have kept Avis busy during her four years of high school. She has been an outstanding student, president of the Student Council and G. A. A., active member of the band, and assistant-editor of the Mummy Case.

University High Homecoming 1942-1943

The Homecoming Festivities of University High this year reached the highest peak obtainable. It started off with a bang at 2:00 P. M. October 2, 1942, with a spirited parade led by the band and followed by twenty-one floats. Prizes were awarded to clubs producing the three outstanding floats.

The homecoming football game between U. High and Valier followed that evening. The Lynxes were victorious in this thrilling game with the final score reading 33 to 27. At the half the band performed various maneuvers, forming a "V" for Valier and a "U" for University High.

On the following night, the annual homecoming party was held in the Old Science Gymnasium. Avis Frank was crowned homecoming queen of 1942-1943 by Bill Parrish, football captain, in a beautifully-decorated gym. The queen and her court made their appearance at 9:00 P. M. Attendants to the queen were: Earlene Johnson, Betty Hagler, Betty Jo Claunch, Virginia Thomas, senior attendants; Virginia Gregory and Clara Ruth Paul, junior attendants; Lois Dallmann and Juanita Hiller, sophomore attendants; Helen Perryman and Phyllis Austin, freshman attendants; Virginia Middleton and Marilyn Nelson, eighth grade attendants; Barbara Scherretz and Betty Brooks, train-bearers; and Frances Van Cleave, crown-bearer.

Avis Frank, the homecoming queen, besides being the most popular girl on the campus, has a very good scholastic and extra-curricular rating. She is also the school's outstanding musician, having won sixty-seven first place gold medals in the district, state, and national music contests.

The homecoming dance was thoroughly enjoyed by faculty, students, and parents.

High School Play

The Youngest, by Phillip Barry, University High's first three-act play, was presented to a large audience in Shyrook Auditorium December 15, 1942, by the Little Theatre Club.

The plot centered around the youngest of the wealthy Winslow family, Richard (John Crenshaw) who was constantly subject to rebuke and criticism by his brothers, Oliver and Mark (Richard Brumley and Robert Presley). His mother, Charlotte Winslow (Lorraine Carrington) wanted him to be like his brothers. His sister, Martha "Muff" Winslow (Nancy Schneider), another sister, Augusta Winslow Martin (Lois Dallmann), and her husband, Alan Martin (Joe Chamness), also added to his troubles. Audre Greer acted the part of Katie, the maid. The arrival of a "sap-headed" New York debutante, Nancy Blake, portrayed by Bettie Mitchell, did not help Richard's unhappy situation. But through her conniving, Richard learns that he owns the whole Winslow fortune, and he is finally able to realize his long-cherished ambition to become a writer.

Those helping back-stage were: Ruth Swain, prompter; Phyllis Austin, stage manager, assisted by Jane and Joan Allen; Shirley Biggs, sound effect manager, assisted by Mary Yow, Clifton Mayer, Frances Shyrook, and Forest Cheatham; and David Logue, in charge of lights.

Mrs. Evelyn Rieke and her student teachers should be highly commended upon their excellent direction of this production.

The University High Band furnished music between acts. Rosemary Larson, a University High senior, was ticket manager for the play.
